A Few, $3.00

NO woman can afford to ignore her shoes unless she hands in her resignation to polite society. For her shoes determine her walk, and her walk determines her style, her carriage, her posture, her whole attitude and bearing as she moves about. A lady's shoe should be light in weight and flexible to the foot to enable her to walk in an easy, graceful manner. This is the especial charm that has made Queen Quality shoes so popular. They are trim and neat in shape as so many other shoes are, but they go farther than this—farther than any other shoe—in actually creating an elastic, graceful step. We illustrate here two new spring models—very new. Many other styles we have to show you.

J. W. Luce of Wetmore, Kansas, writes: "I have been a reader of The True Northerner from the date of its first publication." Forty-eight years is a long time to read one newspaper, but Mr. Luce seems to enjoy it now as well as ever.

Mrs. B. W. Hipp, who lived in Almena, died last Saturday of valvular heart disease, at the age of 61 years. The funeral services were held at the house Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Martin officiating. The remains were taken to Cassopolis, Monday, for burial.

On account of the inclement weather, only a small congregation greeted Rev. D. Munro of Wayland at the Christian church last Sunday morning, but he gave an excellent home missionary address. In the evening, he addressed a large temperance meeting at the Free Baptist church.

The freeze last week Thursday night did great damage to fruit in this section. Cherries and plums are practically ruined, and early varieties of strawberries are gone. Peaches suffered, both here and on the lake shore. Grapes were slightly injured, but prospects are yet good for a good crop of this fruit and apples.

A packed house greeted the Gus Sun minstrels last week Thursday evening, and they gave an elegant entertainment. Manager Longwell is entitled to the thanks of the public for procuring such high class companies, and The True Northerner is sure his efforts are appreciated. If none but high class shows came to Paw Paw, it would soon lose its reputation of being a poor show town. [93tf]

Circuit Court.

In the case of Jay D. Roberts vs. the S. H. & E. R. Co., in which the jury was out when The True Northerner went to press last week, a verdict was given at $5,000 damages to Roberts. It will be remembered that Roberts lost a leg at South Haven by being struck at a street crossing by a moving train. The case will probably be appealed by the company.

Jesse E. Goodrode vs. the people. In this case Goodrode had pleaded guilty to being drunk on the streets of the village of Lawrence. Justice Thomas O. Sweet of Lawrence, before whom he was arraigned, fined him $10.00 and costs $5.05 and sentenced him to jail for 10 days, but in making out his commitment omitted to recite who it was that was convicted and sentenced. Goodrode sued out a writ of habeas corpus and was discharged by the court.

William Culver vs. the S. H. & E. R. Co. This is an action on the case for injuries received—loss of both feet—while coupling cars in the Paw Paw yards some months ago. The case has been on trial all the week and is not yet finished. Edward Maher of Chicago is assisting attorney S. H. Kelly in the trial of the case for the company. The jury went out last evening, remained out all night and this morning gave a verdict of $10,000 for the plaintiff.
